

The London Association of Funeral Directors

Certificate in Funeral Arranging & Administration

Launched in 2007, the LAFD Certificate in Funeral Arranging & Administration has been designed specifically as a qualification for those in the frontline of funeral service.

Course alumni have been drawn from a variety of funeral service backgrounds: from those with several years of experience to relatively new staff and from the smallest to the largest member firms.

Taught by David Hall DipFD (NAFD Approved Tutor), the class-based course requires a commitment of 12 weeks, involving eleven weekly evening seminars and some private study time, followed by a 90 minute written examination formed of short answer and multiple choice questions.

Topics covered include:

- The Work of the Funeral Director
- The First Call and Caring for the Deceased
- Registration and Coroners' Procedure
- The Law and Practice of Cremation and of Burial
- Funeral Rites and Procedure for the Funerals of Children
- Financial considerations and DWP arrangements
- Arranging the funeral
- Client Care

Successful students are presented with a display Certificate and are permitted to use the post-nominal 'CertFAA' to indicate their qualification.

NB: Students must comply with minimum attendance requirements to be eligible for the examination.

The course cost of only £525* per student includes all course materials and the examination.

Course fee may be subject to small revision, if necessitated by cost increases*

The next course to be held in central London will commence on 18th April 2018, with the examination on 11th July 2018.
